Mr. Martin Walker, [hereinafter “Appellant”] appeals from a judgement issued by the Office of Administrative Hearings [hereinafter “OAH”] revoking Appellant’s registration as a security guard. The Division of Licensing Services, [hereinafter “Respondent”], properly mailed the pleadings and notice of hearing by certified mail. However, the papers were returned by the U.S. Postal Service with the notation, “unclaimed.” As a result, the Appellant was not present at the hearing held by the OAH. Respondent has no objection to a new hearing.
