§1208.1 Application of Minimum Standards.

(a) Beginning January 1, 1985, code enforcement personnel, as defined in Part 434 of this Title, who are charged with enforcement of the Uniform Code and who commence employment on or after such date shall complete the prescribed minimum basic code enforcement training within the applicable period established under that Part. As used in this subdivision, the term CODE ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL shall not include elected officers of a county, city, town or village acting in their official capacities.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, code enforcement personnel who commenced employment on or after January 1, 1985 and before July 1, 1986 shall complete the required training within the period prescribed under Part 434 of this Title or before July 1, 1987, whichever is later.
