Section 175.17 of Part 175 of Title 19 of the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations is amended to read as follows:

175.17 Prohibitions in relation to solicitation and unlawful discriminatory practice.

(a)[1] No broker or salesperson shall induce or attempt to induce an owner to sell or lease any residential property or to list same for sale or lease by making any representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion [or], national origin, age, sex, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity, military status, familial status or any other protected category under any federal, state or local law applicable to the activities of real estate licensees in New York State.

(b)2

(i) No licensed real estate broker or salesperson shall solicit the sale, lease or the listing for sale or lease of residential property after such licensee has received written notice from an owner thereof that such owner or owners do not desire to sell, lease or list such property.

(ii) Notice provided under the provisions of this subdivision to a real estate broker shall constitute notice to all associate brokers and salespersons who are employed by the real estate broker.

(c)3

(i) No licensed real estate broker or salesperson shall solicit the sale, lease or the listing for sale or lease of residential property from owner of residential property located in a designated cease-and-desist zone if such owner has filed a cease-and-desist notice with the Department of State indicating that such owner or owners do not desire to sell, lease or list their residential property and do not desire to be solicited to sell, lease or list their residential property.

(ii) The following geographic areas are designated as cease-and-desist zones, and, unless sooner redesignated, the designation for the following cease-and-desist zones shall expire on the following dates:

(3) The names and addresses of owners who have filed a cease-and-desist notice with the Department of State shall be compiled according to the street address for each cease-and-desist zone. Following the first compilation of a list, the list shall be revised and updated annually on or before December 31st. Individual lists shall be identified by geographic area and year.

(4) A copy of each cease-and-desist list shall be available for inspection at the following offices of the Department of State:

Department of State
Division of Licensing Services
80 South Swan Street, 10th Floor
Albany, New York 12231-0001

Department of State
Division of Licensing Services
The cost of each list compiled pursuant to this subdivision shall be $10 and shall be available upon written request to the following address:

Department of State
Division of Licensing Services
123 William Street
New York, New York 10038-3804
((6)vi) The original cease-and-desist notice shall be filed with the Department of State's Division of Licensing Services at 123 William Street, New York, New York 10038-3804, and shall be available for public inspection and copying upon written request and appointment.

((7)vii) For the purposes of Real Property Law, section 441-c, it shall not be a demonstration of untrustworthiness or incompetence for a licensee to solicit an owner who had filed a cease-and-desist notice with the Department of State if the owner's name and address do not appear on the current cease-and-desist list compiled by the Department of State pursuant to [paragraph (3) of this subdivision] subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph.

((d)4)

((1)j) For the purposes of this [section]subdivision, solicitation shall mean an attempt to purchase or rent or an attempt to obtain a listing of property for sale, for rent or for purchase. Solicitation shall include but not be limited to use of the telephone, mails, delivery services, personal contact or otherwise causing any solicitation, oral or written, direct or by agent:

((i)g) to be delivered or presented to the owner or anyone else at the owner's home address;

((ii)b) to be left for the owner or anyone else at the owner's home address; or

((iii)c) to be placed on any vehicle, structure or object located on the owner's premises.

((2)ii) Solicitation shall not include classified advertising in regularly printed periodicals that are not primarily real estate related; advertisements placed in public view if they are not otherwise in violation of this [section]subdivision; or radio and television advertisements.

((e)5) For the purposes of this [section]subdivision, residential property shall mean one-, two- or three-family houses, including a cooperative apartment or condominium.

(b) No real estate broker or salesperson shall engage in an unlawful discriminatory practice, as proscribed by any federal, state or local law applicable to the activities of real estate licensees in New York State. A finding by any federal, state or local agency or court of competent jurisdiction that a real estate broker or salesperson has engaged in unlawful discriminatory practice in the performance of licensed real estate activities shall be presumptive evidence of untrustworthiness and will subject such licensee to discipline, including a proceeding for revocation. Nothing herein shall limit or restrict the Department from otherwise exercising its authority pursuant to section 441-c of the Real Property Law.
